To access the Blackboard system, kindly log in with the provided website address: <https://istinye.blackboard.com>, using your student number and email password as your username and password, respectively. We advise you to take note of this information for future reference.

In preparation for the online classes, we recommend that you review the Blackboard system user guide, which can be accessed via the following link: <https://youtu.be/a74IvoHvtFM>.

The main page of your Blackboard Spring Term class will provide you with the link to join the class on the day of the class. By clicking on this link, you will be able to attend your class via Zoom. Please ensure that you only join your class through the link provided on your Blackboard class page, to avoid being marked absent in your actual class.

Attendance is mandatory, and we encourage you to check your course syllabus for information on attendance and course evaluation. The syllabus has already been shared on Blackboard. We strongly advise you to carefully review the syllabus, with special attention to your upcoming Quarter exam. You can find details of the exam and the units included in the exam posted on the Announcements course.

All classes will be recorded and made available for you to access and review later. This will allow you to watch the recordings of the classes you missed until the exam date, allowing you to better prepare for the exams.

If you have any academic inquiries, please do not hesitate to seek assistance from your advisor. For further questions and concerns, you can also reach out to foreignlanguages@istinye.edu.tr.

We hope that you will have a fruitful and rewarding semester, and we look forward to seeing you online!
